

Same Old Moon

Little Theatre Comic drama Geraldine Aron Characters: 3 male, 5 female to play 10 male, 11 female Unit set. This charming autobiographical play from Londons West End creates scenes from the life of aspiring writer Brenda Barnes. From age nine into her forties, she is seen through the eyes of her eccentric and sometimes fiery family, particularly her willfully self descriptive father and her put upon and sometimes hot tempered mum. Hilarious scrapes erupt when Brendas imagination and intelligence bump against the restrictions of Irish and English customs and society. The play is a captivating and not uncritical look at family life that features some wonderful roles. It is funny, moving and seriously entertaining.... The audience loved it. London Main of Sunday. It has humor, feeling and a quiet confident power all its own. London Times.
