

Celebrating Hotchclaw

A new contemporary novel from Ann Allen Shockley, author of the 1974 classic, Loving Her. Hotchclaw is an HBC - an Historically Black College - a survivor among the many small southern colleges that came into being after slavery to promote higher education for black students in an era of segregation. Hotchclaw is ready to celebrate its 100th anniversary. But under the surface of the jubilation and pride there are internal conflicts, professional, psychological and sexual, between the president and faculty. And a contingent of students also making waves. After a shocking discovery about one of the schools most admired professors, sparks fly and its a wild party! NOW an e-Book Too!!!!!!
