

2015 Writing from Inlandia

With the 2015 Writing From Inlandia: Work of the Inlandia Creative Writing Workshops anthology, the fourth anthology in this series, the Inlandia Institute brings you new work by twenty-six talented writers - some veterans of the program, and some new voices - writing in the genres of poetry, fiction, and creative nonfiction. These works represent hours of dedication to the craft, both in the workshop and outside of it. The Writing from Inlandia series was created to celebrate the participants in our Creative Writing Workshops series -- but more than that, it serves as a record of who we are at the present moment, here in this place that we call home.
