

Bravest Of The Brave: The Court-Martial Of Kit Carson

Christopher Houston Carson, a legend of the American frontier, was known from his birth in 1809 as Kit. Many of his adventures are retold in this spellbinding courtroom tale, Bravest of the Brave. The novel relates the story of Captain Scott BeMiller, a young Ivy League lawyer, assigned to Kits defense for atrocities committed against the Indians during the Navajo Campaign. The court-martial is held at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, where the Captain finds love, but he also encounters political pressures from Washington and violence and deception in the courtroom. He must confront William Tecumseh Sherman in Washington to obtain final justice.
