

Game On: A Cody Howell Novel

Frustration is the greatest key to success. At least that's what fifteen-year-old homeschooler Cody Howell is learning. When faced with the inability to get a job, Cody takes matters into his own hands by tapping into his own interests and creating a brand new game. His hard work leads him to the middle of the largest trade show of its kind in Palm Springs, California where he is faced with choosing between money or security. His heart tells him that he should go for the money, but his head screams caution. Which will he choose?
