

The Sloth of Heaven (The Fallen Angels Book 2)

All Hell has been unleashed. Its gates have been flung wide open and its Demonic hordes have been spewed up onto the Surface. Sariel has broken Hells Curse but Lucifer is still not free. The Backlash of the Curse has rendered him comatose, and all of Heaven. Heavens inaction seems a gift of fate, an unexpected boon for the Goddesses carving up the Surface. Brigids plans rest heavily on the coronation of Victoria to unite her divided empire. While Heras hidden empire grows in the crumbling ruins of the United States. But it was not just Hell that was unlocked. All of the Underworld is free to invade the Surface and from its dark depths have risen forgotten Gods. They too have their own intentions of empires. While Heaven lies silent the world is being divided up by Gods, Fallen Angels and Greater Demons desperately preparing for the Angels return. For how long before Heavens wrath rains down on them all?
