

Storm Front

Paul Marino could see the collapse of the environment from human activities beginning right before his eyes. He knew it was inevitable and there was nothing he could do to stop it. Upon meeting a man from the future, Paul learns that his fears come true and they are worse than he could have imagined. But the man also comes with hope, a gift. He gives Paul the ability to change the world. He tells Paul to do three things: stop the destruction that eventually leads to the decimation of life on the planet; train to fight because they will come for him; and to protect Melissa. Walking a fine line between saving the world of tomorrow and fighting with the people of today Paul sets out on his mission. All the while wondering how he will ever find the one Melissa he is to protect.
