Want to be perfect, beautiful, powerful? Want to live to be over 200 years in your prime, with powers, money, fame? Two brothers wander into an experiment gone awry. One female, one male scientist and a pregnant Bengal Tiger vanish. Bio-kinetics, the new power source to liberate the world from its energy enslavement, causes strange effects. Youngsters across the globe develop incredible talents, living eons. The world's future lies with a team of Guardians once the leader's younger brother uncovers the secret. The need to use their younger versions comes from the inability of the Guardian members to use their unnatural abilities in the past. Consequently the young boys, also acquired super human powers. The older of the brothers merges with two female Guardians to become one entity to battle Muse who came from the union of the two scientists and the tiger.
