

Francescas Foundlings (Lynton Series) (Volume 2)

Two years have passed since Drew MacCulloughs untimely death. Anxious to get on with her life, and encouraged by her friend, Brid Sheerin, we find his widow, Franny, about to fulfill her dream of opening a vintage doll shop on Main Street.

Suddenly faced with a crisis involving Lilah Patch, Brides young assistant at the Sheerin Gallery, the two women, together with Frannys sister, Sofia, and her attorney, Neil Malone, step forward to help find a solution. Over the course of a turbulent spring and summer, they and other familiar Lynton faces, discover not all families are born of blood. Some are brought together by fate and bound by love. Francescas Foundlings continues the story begun in MacCulloughs Women of the unlikely friendship forged between two women brought together by their love of the same man. Francescas Foundlings is the second novel in the Lynton Series
