Many people hoard items or keep stuff around that they don't need and rarely ever use. When they move they keep packing and taking the same stuff from home to home with them, often needing much more space to keep and store it in. They worry about these items or they even let this stuff prevent them from really living. They are scared to move or take another job in another city because they don't want to move their stuff or have it damaged or lost. This is a high price to pay just to hold on to material goods. In Minimalism - Be Happy By Cleaning Your Clutter and Simplifying Your Life Through Minimalism, we take a look into simplifying your life by ridding yourself of the clutter that is holding you back!
