

The Apprentice Viol Maker

A historical novel, set in the final years of the 15th century. Disobeying his father, Andrea Caldora enters an apprenticeship with Maestro Fabbio, Gaetas string instrument maker, amateur alchemist, and secret philanderer. When after another clandestine alchemy experiment Fabbio is found stabbed, all evidence points to Andrea as the murderer he was seen by Fabbios wife holding a bloody knife, his tunic was bloody, and she had heard Fabbio berate him for having ruined the experiment. While languishing in the dungeon, Andrea despairs that he will not be strong enough to maintain his innocence if subjected to torture, and he makes a false confession. But before he is executed, possible freedom beckons in the form of a meat pie that hides a file. After his escape, he joins the army of King Charles VIII of France who is marching through the Italian Peninsula to claim the throne of the Kingdom of Naples. Will Andrea succeed in discovering who killed Fabbio, prove his innocence, and find the love of his life?
