Werewolves and vampires are a bunch of wusses. In fact, most of the monsters you see in movies and read about in books are pretty substandard. Take vampires for instance. Its hard to find something that cant hurt them. You have sunlight, garlic, wooden stakes, crosses, holy water, fire, silver, beheading, running water, roses, etc The list goes on and on. Worst of all, they have to ask your permission to let them come into your house to kill you. Its surprising they dont all die from cancer after turning to smoke.No, if youre looking for a monster for the new millennium, you have to go with a slider. Theyre arrogant, a little self centered and they can turn into giant snakes. They might have a flaw or two. They eat people instead of veggies. They listen to classic rock bands. And, they have a compulsion for computer games. But, that doesnt mean theyre all bad. If you tack on an unfortunate name, an indigestible new girlfriend, a vampire to beat up on and a good old fashioned monster hunt, you come away with quite a little adventure.
